JONES HONORED WITH SPERRY AWARD

Retiring COOR Superintendent Bob Jones (left) recently accepted the Ralph Sperry Award from Clarice Sperry, widow of Ralph Sperry. The award is presented yearly to an individual or group in recognition of their contributions to assist people with disabilities to overcome barriers and to participate fully in their communities. "In his role as superintendent of COOR ISD, Robert (Bob) has been a champion for education and for people with disabilities both in the COOR community and statewide. His vision and advocacy have helped COOR Educational Center students and ROOC consumers develop meaningful academic and life skills in respectful ways," a press release stated.
